"I am intimately familiar with the journey you are on at Nature Care, as one of the Co-Founders & Lecturers in the program from 2002-2010. My aim is to support your evolution, actualisation, emergence and growth, and on all levels: professionally, spiritually, and holistically. In the midst of your forward movement, I also offer you a sanctuary in which the nature of your soul can be discovered, explored, and expressed. Your goals may include but are not limited to success with: clarifying vision/purpose/direction, strengthening foundations, creating fulfilling relationships, wellness/health, manifesting dreams, developing leadership, transitioning through career and life changes."

Personal coaching rates are $150-180/hr. Please enquire.

Coaching speciality or key areas of interest/focus as a Coach:

I have a particular interest in creativity coaching - tapping the artist within and living every day artfully. This focus also includes personal writing (writing for personal development) as well as journal and poetry facilitation. I love working with people to discover and realise their creative projects and to throw light on their creative processes - how to use that fundamental human resource we each have in abundance: creativity.
