CLINIC INFORMATION

Clinical Training (Student Clinic units) are listed under each relevant qualification. Further clinical training options are also listed on page 29 under further class options.

PRE-ENROLMENT INFORMATION

When choosing your clinic unit of study class please be aware that Clinic Units of Study require 100% attendance.

CLINIC UNIT OF STUDY ATTENDANCE REQUIREMENTS

- In order to pass 100% attendance is required. It is the responsibility of each student to ensure attendance at every clinic session in its entirety. Late arrival or early departure will be recorded as non-attendance by your trainer
- There is provision for non attendance due to extenuating special circumstances up to a maximum of 2 classes per unit of study provided you submit an 'Application for a Deferred Clinical Training Session' along with supporting documentation & deferred application fee to Student and Learning Services <http://www.naturecare.com.au/publications/forms.asp>
- Circumstances in which you are eligible to apply for extenuating circumstances are; illness or incapacity, bereavement in the immediate family, hardship/trauma, employment, or a pre-booked holiday NB: non attendance due to illness will only be recognised when a practitioner certificate is provided as evidence
- Non attendance without approved extenuating circumstances will be recorded as a FAIL for this unit of study and you will be required to re-enrol with no academic or financial credit

FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS

Q. What happens if I cannot attend a class due to extenuating circumstances?

A. As soon as possible contact the clinic reception staff on 8423 8444 to advise them of your absence. The clinic staff will notify your trainer of your absence. Within (7 days) you must submit your 'Application for Deferred Clinical Training Session' along with supporting documentation to Student and Learning Services. Your application will be assessed by a Course Advisor and you & your trainer will be notified of the outcome within 5 working days.

Q. When are deferred clinical training sessions held?

A. Dates for deferred clinical training sessions are preset and published on the 'Application for Deferred Clinical Training Form'. You must sit your deferred clinical session within the term dates provided, failure to do so will result in a 'Fail' for this unit of study.

Q. Why does a clinic unit of study have a 100% attendance requirement?

A. It is in accordance with Professional Associations and Health Fund requirements.
